Program

The 7 host clubs have been divided into three regional groups, each eager to share local attractions and traditions. The program includes cultural events, sightseeing and historical tours, wilderness and fjord experiences, sampling Norwegian food and get-togethers with locals - plus plenty of free time to build friendships with the other members of your group.

Own costs: Airfares and spending money.
Other costs are covered by D2250
and the host clubs.

Clothing - Summer weather varies.
Supplementary to your normal day to day clothes, it is suggested to bring the following items.

- Shorts and swimwear (beach visits)
- Solid hiking shoes, water- and wind-proof jacket (hikes in mountains, forests, etc)
- Warm outer clothing, fleece, sweater and hat

Insurance: Participants must be insured against illness, accidents, and third-party liabilities.

Applications

Applications will be considered in order of being received.

We are looking forward seeing you all in Norway in August ☺
